*Welcome,
Dads of Ohio State!*

HI DAD! To tell you and show you how much we appreciate you, Ohio State is observing Dad's Day. This celebration is being held for you. You are the guest of honor.

I want to welcome all of you on behalf of the entire student body with an official "HELLO, DAD." However, each of you will be welcomed by the hearty handclaps, the smiling faces and the excited conversation of the students, which all chime in to tell you we are really glad to have you with us today.

With such a large enrollment, it is impossible for the University to entertain all of you, so, the Dad's Day committee has selected one dad to represent more than 21,000 of you as 'Dad of Dads'.

Today's Dad of Dads is Charles Gladden Young, Sr., of 659 Manchester Rd., Mansfield, Ohio. One of his sons, Charles, Jr., is a freshman in Arts-Med., and is pledged to Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. Another son is a pupil in junior high school at Mansfield. Mr. Young, who is maintenance manager for the Standard Oil Co., in Mansfield, did not attend college. Mrs. Young attended Ashland College. Mr. Young is active in Masonic, Foreman's Club and Boy Scout work.

Preceding the game, the Ohio State University Athletic Department entertained the dads of the football squad with a special luncheon. During the game dads will be seated on a platform behind the players' bench. They will be introduced to you during the ceremonies at halftime.

To be sure, all dads are proud of their sons and daughters here at Ohio State, but so are we, in our own right, proud and very grateful to you. Thank you, dad!

Come back, often, won't you?

To cheer the team we like;
But when it comes to cigarettes
I cheer for Lucky Strike!

I really am a Lucky guy,
Just got my Ph.D.
To prove to you how much I know,
L.S., sir means F.T.

Be Happy- Go Lucky!

Enjoy your cigarette! Enjoy truly fine tobacco that combines both perfect mildness and rich taste in one great cigarette - Lucky Strike!

Perfect mildness? You bet. Scientific tests, confirmed by three independent consulting laboratories, prove that Lucky Strike is milder than any other principal brand. Rich taste? Yes, the full, rich taste of truly fine tobacco.

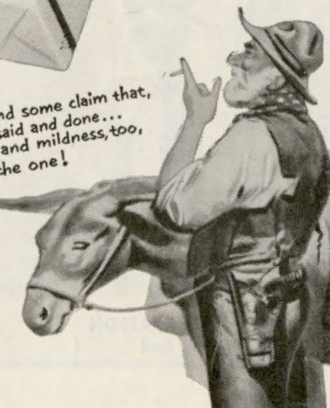

Only fine tobacco gives you both real mildness and rich taste. And Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. So enjoy the happy blending that combines perfect mildness with a rich, true tobacco taste. Be Happy—Go Lucky!

Ohio State vs. Iowa

SERIES HIGHLIGHTS

THE FOURTEENTH MEETING on the gridiron today between the Ohio State Buckeyes and the Hawkeyes of Iowa finds these two colorful Big Ten rivals virtually tied for series honors. The teams have met 13 times in the past 28 years. The series was inaugurated with the opening of Ohio Stadium in 1922. The record book shows that Ohio has won 6 games; Iowa 5, and 2 were tied. All but two of these 13 games were played in Ohio Stadium.

In reviewing this series, the games seem to divide themselves naturally into two groups. Iowa clearly dominated the first decade of play. Of the first seven games, Iowa won 4, Ohio 2, and one game was tied. In the second half of the series, the Buckeyes have demonstrated their superiority. Of the last six meetings between the teams, the Bucks won 4, Iowa 1, and one game was tied. All of the gridiron battles between these Big Ten schools have been marked by bruising play.

One of Iowa's great teams opened the series, winning 12-9 in Ohio Stadium in 1922. Ohio scored first on a long pass thrown by Hoge Workman. Gordon Locke, Iowa all-American, tied the score. Another long Workman pass set up a successful field goal for the Bucks. But in the fourth quarter, Iowa recovered a fumble on the Ohio 10-yard line and drove over for a score. This Iowa team went on to the Big Ten title. The game represented the best showing of the season for the Bucks.

The following year, in '23, Iowa defeated a favored Ohio team, 20-0. The late Howard Jones, who was coach, fired the Hawks to a 13-0 lead at the half. Iowa Tackle John Hancock scooped up a loose ball and ran 45 yards for a touchdown in the second half to ice the decision. The defeat came two weeks after the Bucks had earned a sensational 23-23 tie with Colgate and had hoped to even the count with Iowa.

After a scoreless tie at Iowa City in 1924, the Bucks and Hawks tangled in a muddy game in Ohio Stadium in 1925, the Hawks emerging victorious, 15-0. Marty Karow, now a member of the Ohio State coaching staff, Freddy Grim and Elmer Marek were the big guns for the Bucks but couldn't push over a score. Wes Fry broke up the game for Iowa with a 51-yard touchdown scamper.

Ohio State's first victory over Iowa came in 1926 when Capt. Karow led his mates to a resounding 23-6 triumph in Ohio Stadium. The Bucks played "heads-up" ball all the way. Karow mixed long and short passes with running plays. Algie Clark and Freddy Grim were his chief targets. In the line, all-American Ed Hess stood out for Ohio. In the second half, Karow scored his famous stolen-ball touchdown, snatching the pigskin out of the arms of an Iowa halfback and scooting over the goal.

Halfback Byron Eby was the star for Ohio as the Bucks beat the Hawks, 13-6, at Iowa City in 1927. After a scoreless first half, Eby scooped up a fumble on the Iowa 25 and scored standing. A few minutes later, Eby winged a pass to George Alber who went 35 yards to score again. On the line, Leo Raskowski and Deb Rowan were great for Ohio that day.

In 1928 and 1929, Ohio and Iowa split close ones. In '28, Iowa won 14-7. The score stood 7-7 with less than a minute to play when McClain plunged for a second touchdown. Ohio's comeback in the second half was sparked by Wes Fesler, now Buckeye coach; Alan Holman and Hardy Kruskamp. The next year, in '29, it was turn about as the late Sam Willaman's Bucks took advantage of the breaks. Tackle Dick Larkins, now Ohio State's athletic director, recovered a blocked punt for a touchdown as Fesler blocked out a would-be Hawk recovery man. Pape scored later for Iowa but Joe O'Shaughnessy blocked the conversion attempt and the Bucks won, 7-6.

In 1934, after a lapse of five years in the series, one of the late Coach Francis Schmidt's high-scoring teams cut down the Hawks, 40-7, later roaring on to whip Michigan 34-7. Aerials swelled the score and Stan Pincura was the passing star. Iowa's great Negro halfback, Ozzie Simmons, ran 80 yards with a pass interception for the Hawks' lone tally.

The Bucks' unbeaten Big Ten champs of 1944 made short work of Iowa in the second game of the season, winning 34-0. Stars for Ohio were Les Horvath, Ollie Cline, Dick Flanagan, Cy Souders and Bill Willis. The Bucks again swamped Iowa the next year, winning 42-0. Dick Fisher scored one touchdown and passed to Tom Watson for another. Other stars for Ohio included Paul Sarringhaus, Hal Daugherty and Cline.

In 1947, Coach Fesler's first year, Ohio staged a rousing fourth quarter comeback to tie Iowa, 13-13. Cline scored one touchdown and Curly Morrison the second. Emil Moldea missed the first conversion but made the second.

The last meeting of these two teams was in 1948 when Coach Eddie Anderson had his Hawks high and ready. Ohio scored first, Joe Whisler plunging over, but Iowa came back to fashion two touchdowns and win the game, 14-7—the same score as Iowa's last previous victory over the Bucks in 1928.

NO GREEN THUMB NEEDED TO OWN A BEAUTIFUL Scott's LAWN

Nothing tricky—just follow the simple maintenance instructions in LAWN CARE. Use Scott's Turf Builder as a steady diet to keep grass healthy and green. If weeds are bad, use double acting, Scott's Weed & Feed. Sow Scott's Seed in thin, bare areas. Scott Lawn beauty sets the pace from Maine to California. You ought to have one.

FREE Lawn Care BULLETIN SERVICE

We'll gladly arrange a free 2 year subscription to LAWN CARE in your name if you will send us your home mailing address. No obligations and a salesman will not call.

CARMEN OHIO

Words by Fred A. Cornell, '06
(Spanish Chant)

Oh! come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill, With joy which death alone can still.
Summer's heat or Winter's cold, The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will surely show How firm thy friendship Ohio.

These jolly days of priceless worth, By far the gladdest days of earth,
Soon will pass and we not know How dearly we love Ohio.
We should strive to keep thy name Of fair repute and spotless fame;
So, in college halls we'll grow To love thee better Ohio.

Tho' age may dim our mem'ry's store, We'll think of happy days of yore,
True to friend and frank to foe, As sturdy sons of Ohio.
If on seas of care we roll, 'Neath blackened sky, o'er barren shoal, Tho'ts of thee bid darkness go, Dear Alma Mater Ohio.
